OUTCOME OF FRENCH REGULATORY INQUIRY

Further to the announcement made in November 2006, Initial BTB SA, a Rentokil

Initial subsidiary operating in the washroom services and linen and garment rental market in France, has now received the judgment of the French Competition

Council relating to allegations that certain of its activities in a period between 1997 and 2002 infringed competition laws. As a result, Initial BTB will pay a fine of Euro5.25 million.

Initial BTB co-operated in all respects with the inquiry, which has now been concluded. The amount of the fine was provided for in 2006

Rentokil Initial's policy has been and remains to conduct its business in full and communication procedures have been introduced across the group to reinforce this policy and our employees' understanding of their obligations compliance with all applicable competition laws. Enhanced training programmes
